

Senior Project Manager (Nuclear)

90k plus benefits, plus generous relocation.

Due to strategic expansion this global engineering client now seek to appoint a Senior Project Manager with experience gained in safety critical environments within the Nuclear or Oil & Gas sector.

Essential Skills/Experience:

- At least 5 years project/programme management experience across the complete project and budgetary lifecycle, sign posting key milestones and identifying and mitigating principal risks.
- Able to lead and deliver complex projects / programmes with multiple stakeholders, customers and suppliers to meet time, cost, quality objectives.
- Excellent influencer, communicator and facilitator
- Degree level qualification; BSc, BEng, HND or HNC in an Engineering Discipline.
- Be in commutable distance to the clients North Staffordshire location (relocation assistance available).
- Project Management qualification; Prince2, PMI, APMP or certified equivalent.
- Strong IT related skills.

Nice to have:

- Chartered Engineer with a recognised Engineering Institution.
- Appropriate Security Clearance (or willingness to obtain).
- Membership of APM or equivalent.

Client Information:

Located in North Staffordshire this global engineering business is synonymous with exacting high standards required in the field of precision engineering and the provision of complex engineering solutions to Nuclear, Aerospace and Defence sectors.

If you are seeking a position that offers you a stimulating and challenging work environment, then we look forward to hearing from you.

Interested: Send your CV and current remuneration details to paul.ross@austinhennessey.co.uk or call Paul Ross for an informal confidential discussion on 07771 666805 – NO AGENCIES.

Austin
Hennessey